Thought for the Week To do the work of Christ is not a complicated thing, but really quite simple.

It means being faithful in little things, which can become a big thing; doing one's task joyfully, no matter how humble it may be; making oneself available, yet not seeking the limelight; making oneself useful, without seeking to push oneself; striving to remain calm amidst the hustle and bustle of life; carrying one's own burden without becoming a burden on others – to sum up in a few words – being helpful, faithful, loyal and constant.

As Mother Teresa said ' We can do no great things – only little things with great love. You can do what I can't do. I can do what you can't do. Together, we can do something beautiful for God'.
